

Arctic Resilient Communities Youth Fellowship

Research Focus

- Climate change
- Green energy alternatives
- Inclusive economic development
- Indigenous Knowledge
- Resource management
- Resilient infrastructure

Fellowship Benefits

- Leadership development
- Interregional knowledge-sharing
- Relationship building
- Travel abroad
- $500 USD monthly stipend

Eligibility

- Age 18-23
- Access to WiFi
- From Greenland, Alaska, or Canada
- Proficient in English
- Willing and able to travel

Indigenous youth are encouraged to apply!

About ARC-YF

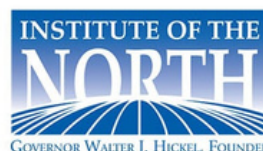

The Arctic Resilient Communities Youth Fellowship (ARC-YF) is a nine-month fellowship funded by the Canadian Government to empower Arctic & Northern youth from Greenland, Alaska, & Canada to serve a direct role in sustainable development and benefit from the prosperity of resilient Arctic communities. Fellows will also travel all three participating regions for hands-on learning experiences.

Apply now!

<http://arcyf.org/apply>

Deadline to Apply
October 5th, 2022

Contact
info@arcyf.org

NORTH STAR GROUP